JUDGES WHO DO AND DON'T.

A disagreeable incident marked a race at New Orleans Thursday. The case is fairly set out in the following dispatch:

"Figuring from performance the race looked like a set-up for Bertha Nell, especially with as capable a boy as Jimmy Dupee on her back. Bertha, however, was a better subject for a hospital than for a race. She was coughing when brought to the paddock before the race and gave evidence in other ways that she was sick. Her party, it was said, knew that the filly was ailing and advised friends not to bet on her, and the smart set among the frequenters of the paddock did not bet on her. The general public, though, knew nothing other than that Bertha Nell, if fit, could run away from the crowd that she was in with, and they backed her, those who snapped up the opening price as a liberal one, getting 7 to 10, while those who were not in a rush and gave the books a chance to learn of her condition, got 4 to 5. The daughter of Fit, instead of going to the front as in her other races, could not raise a good gallop, and was beaten off from start to finish. After the race Dupee was called into the steward's stand, but it must have been to ascertain from him what ailed the filly. It was no fault of his that she did not make a better showing. The most skillful jockey that ever threw a leg over a horse could not have won with her to-day."

It is almost a certainty that people who run horses under the conditions here described, find their reward in the betting ring. The judges and stewards at New Orleans are derelict in their duty in this as in other cases. It is as certain as anything can be in racing affairs, that the vigilant and wide-awake judges and stewards of the San Francisco tracks would have visited the Bertha Nell people with speedy and severe punishment had her last race occurred under their jurisdiction.

The difference between the situations at New Orleans and San Francisco is that at New Orleans the judges and stewards for some occult reason do little beyond drawing their salaries while at San Francisco they show a vigilance and decision in ferreting out and punishing fraud and "in and out" running worthy of all praise. A measure of their ardor in protecting the public would be of marked benefit at New Orleans.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Messrs. Clay & Woodford of Paris, Ky., have the following horses in training for this year: Duncan Bell, br. g, 4, by Hindoo—Miss Used. Black Heart, b. f, 4, by Hindoo—Cherry Blossom.

Mariti, br. f, 3, by Hindoo—Mary McGowan. Heman, ch. g, 3, by Sir Dixon—Hindooland. Little Mary, ch. f, 2, by Candelmas—Jaconet. Grievance, b. f, 2, by Hindoo—Miss Used. Duplicate, br. f, 2, by Hindoo—Miss Moore. Terrene, ch. f, 2, by Terra Cotta—Duchess of Montrose.

May-Be-So, ch. f, 2, by Hindoo—Mary B. Factory Girl, b. f, 2, by Hindoo—Morgan Girl. Kanaka, b. f, 2, by Sir Dixon—Kissengen.

Ganie Clay, ch. f, 2, by Sir Dixon—La Colona. Governor Wood, b. g, 2, by Hindoo—Cherry Blossom.

Dolph Spreckels, though by no means a plunger, dearly loves a long shot, and occasionally takes a flyer that gives the San Francisco ring a painful shock. Something of the sort he did last Saturday when Nick Hall's filly Sevens won. The Breeder and Sportsman says:

"A. B. Spreckels made the clean-up of the season at Oakland on Saturday when Sevens won. His exact winnings are not known, but $12,000 is not far from the mark. Mr. Spreckels bred and named the filly, and she was sold at the second Spreckels sale at the Occidental Horse Exchange for $605. Nick S. Hall was her purchaser. The daughter of Watercress and Folly (latter sister to Sinfax) is an awfully good looking filly, and she is credited with having worked half a mile in :48½ with her weight up. Surely this was good enough to bet on, and that's what Mr. Spreckels did in every book in the big ring, too."

The Racing Calendar of this week contains the following list of names claimed for 2-year-olds, being probably the closing list for this year:

J. B. Haggin—Plumage, ch. f, by Goldfinch—Lizzie Dunbar.

Milton Young—Try Try, ch. c, by Macduff—Mysterious.

Robert Collier—Bob Salter, b. c, by Minstrel—Queen.

White & Stafford—E. B. Guthrie, ch. c, by Tea Tray—Isbell.

W. J. Taylor—Karabel, b. f, by Kismet—Brierfoot; Dianora, b. f, by Duncombe—Eye Sweet.

T. J. Brush—Lady Canewood, ch. f, by Ormonde d'Or—Winning Eyes.

Duke & Wishard—Doremus, b. c, by Luke Blackburn—Lythe; H. Davis, ch. c, by Greenland—Callera.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ladies' Days at Latonia this year will be few and far between. Secretary Hopper has made up his mind to give but one or two Ladies' Days at the coming meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club. Secretary Hopper will pattern his Ladies' Days after those of the Crescent City Jockey Club, which are very few but a distinct feature when they are given.—Commercial Tribune.

The Roman may not be able to start in the Burns handicap. The injury to the son of Brutus was more serious than at first supposed, but although going sound at present, he can hardly be gotten ready for a bruising race inside of a month, and the Burns handicap is only three weeks off.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Among the horses that are expected from Memphis at Little Rock this week are Gath, Laureate, Forbush, Harry Duke, Crockett, Marquise and George B. Cox. Some twenty stables are already at the track. The meeting opens next Wednesday.

The 3-year-old filly Lady of the West, is showing remarkably well in her work at Nashville. Tuesday she went a mile in 1:43, doing the quarter in 24½, the half in 50½ and six furlongs in 1:16½. Lady of the West was a very good 2-year-old.

Through an oversight the entries made by R. C. Doggett to the Washington Handicap were overlooked. They have been allowed, and are as follows: Doggett, 119; Alarum, 111.

Henry Wehmoff, of Louisville, has sold his Latonia race track stock to "Col." W. E. Applegate, thus rendering the latter the principal owner of the track.

W. A. Sippy's Assignee is showing as well as any horse in training at Little Rock. He has all of his old-time speed and moves as if sound.

The good racehorse Grady, after a long rest at Fresno, has been sent to Ingleside to join in the battle for the purses.

Sam Hildreth has fired All Over, Captive and a few other of his patched-up cripples. They will be given a rest.

Tod Sloan has been secured to ride Linstock in the California Derby to be run next Saturday at Ingleside.

Winner—Ch. f, by Rossington—Bourne O. Start good. Won in hard drive. Suscol was best, but not well ridden. Neither was Ione, for that matter. But she was luckiest and fittest. Hohenlohe is unfortunate. Don't drop him. He likes a route, is good and closed strong. York was messed about and cut off at start, in rear and on home turn. He closed a lot of ground and needs strong handling. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—Oahu, 107; Niihau, 107; Little T. G., 107; Hardly, 107; Queen Blazes, 107; Defiant, 109; Glen Ann, 107.

*Coupled in betting. Winner—Ch. f, by Nomad—Sweet. Start fair. Won handsly. Drive for place. Toluca outclassed field; had none too good luck; likes a route and is dead game. Scratch is but a sprinter. Is fit and was lucky and was well ridden. Ach was used too much and quit at end. He is fit. So is Native Son, who showed a lot of speed. Ramon is promising. Was not well handled. Cakes, off badly, was cut off at start and on turn for home. Chico showed a lot of speed. He was outclassed. Fan and Practice were away badly. Watch the latter.

Start good. First six driving hard. Star was best, because fittest and well ridden. With an even break Augustus would have won. He was most unlucky, but is fit and favors a route. Mamie G about ran her race. She was outclassed. Is fit and was well handled. Meadow Lark was cut off on the first turn and home bend. He is fit. Watch him. Olive was poorly managed. Watch her and Masoero, who is ready. Benamela was off badly and closed strong. He has moods. The route too long for Ross. She was used too much and quit sharply at end. Justine is not much.
